FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE
Cures colds, throat and lung troubles.

This series of remarkable pictures is copyrighted by the Selig Polyscope Company and was posed for under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus. The making of the pictures cost $50,000. Ships had to be constructed and special costumes made, so that the events depicted would be true to life. The story illustrated was written by C. E. Nixon. A great public park in Chicago was set aside for the production of the pictures. The Boston AMERICAN is able to reproduce the instructive pictures through the kindness of the Selig-Polyscope Company.

I'll Silence the Skeptic

To the man who knows—who has tried me in Boston, who being satisfied himself, has sent me his brother, his father or his friends—the pleased customer, I send this message:

I am particularly anxious, when opportunity affords, that former customers take advantage of any of the extraordinary offerings which I am from time to time enabled to make. I want you to get your order in now at these prices. You can take the suit at your leisure a month or two hence—but give me your order now.

You have my public word in advance that the values are great, so come in and look them over. Make your selection if the bargains impress you, take your sample home, and I'll have your suit ready a month or two from now when you are ready to wear it. In the meantime send your friends.

To the man who doubts—who having never tried, doesn't know; who never looked, and who never proved, but who if he looks and proves becomes a good customer, I send this message:

I need you—you need me. If I don't do anything but keep the other fellows' prices down where they belong, every city needs me.

I offer you this week incontestable proof, plain, manifest, palpable proof of my ability to provide clothing values under the market. Subtract from my statement the exaggeration that you think all advertisers are given to, and then I'll surprise you.

Subtract from my statement the confidence that my knowledge imparts to me, and then I'll surprise you. Subtract from my statement all the skepticism, all the doubts and the misgivings with which you are saturated and then I'll surprise you.

I tell you I can sell you a suit lower than the other fellow can buy the cloth. I don't ask you to buy—
